1. List various communication strategies used in your school to provide additional information to parents and to increase parental involvement in supporting classroom instruction.

The school will distribute a quarterly newsletter to parents that is developed with participation of the parent-school organization, principal, staff and parent volunteers. It includes school news, a calendar of school activities, and parenting tips related to school achievement such as homework tips, organizational skills, and study skills. Teachers will send home weekly class updates. - Rhonda Redmond

The school's reading specialist will create materials explaining the school's involvement with the state's reading initiative and how the parents can be involved in supporting the goals of this initiative. It will be distributed at P.A.L.S. (Parents Assuring Literary Success) Meetings. - Pam Evans

The school will create a Web site to house classroom Web sites for each teacher. Homework assignments and pertinent classroom information will be available on classroom Web sites. Also, parents can access their child's grades using a PIN number they received at the beginning of the school year. Parents may use e-mail to communicate with members of the school staff. - Edline & HAC - Sherri Fite

Each teacher will send home a folder containing student papers and work samples each week. - Beverly Overturf/ Rhonda Redmond

Teachers will routinely contact parents on an individual basis to communicate about their child's progress. – Beverly Overturf/Rhonda Redmond

The school will provide to parents reports/report cards every four weeks with information regarding their child's academic progress and upcoming classroom and school events. - District Report Cards - Beverly Overturf/Rhonda Redmond

The school will send parents a letter in the first nine weeks that explains their child's test results and standardized test scores. - Rhonda Redmond

The school will offer parents a special workshop each year on the school's approach to school improvement. – Beverly Overturf/Rhonda Redmond

The school will send notices home with students, post notices on the school website, on the marquis, through alert now and post notices in the quarterly newsletter about parent workshops and meetings. - Rhonda Redmond

The school will use the student handbook, school Web site, and parent orientation meetings about the Schoolwide Title I Plan and how to get a copy upon request. - Beverly Overturf/Rhonda Redmond

2. List the proposed parent meeting, conferences and activities regularly throughout this year and the dates providing flexible meeting times that you have planned to increase parental involvement and build staff and parent capacity to engage in these types of efforts. (Must include the 2 state mandated parent/teacher conferences each year.)

These meetings will include a series of P.A.L.S. luncheons that provide an opportunity for parents to experience the school situation in a positive and helpful manner while school staff may provide any needed assistance or encouragement. – Pam Evans/Rhonda Redmond

The school will hold an orientation for parents to inform them about the school's participation in the Title I program and to encourage parents to be involved with reviewing and revising of the School's Title I Plan. - Beverly Overturf/Rhonda Redmond

The meetings will be held at various times during the day or evening to better accommodate parents. - Rhonda Redmond

Outside speakers will provide parents with more information concerning ways to make their child's academic life more successful. - Rhonda Redmond

Teachers will hold conferences individually with parents of children in their classrooms. Parents will be given a summary of the student's test scores and an explanation of the interventions teachers are using to assist the child in reaching achievement goals. Parents will be asked to engage in discussion of how they can support these efforts. Parents will also be given suggestions for coordinating school-parent efforts and explanations of homework and grading procedures. – District Scheduled Parent Teacher Conferences - Beverly Overturf

The school will offer parents a special workshop each year to provide an explanation of the statewide assessment system, standards, and other accountability measures. - Beverly Overturf
