1. List various communication strategies used in your school to provide additional information to parents and to increase parental involvement in supporting classroom instruction.*Hint

Caldwell Elementary School recognizes that communication between home and school should be regular, two-way, and meaningful. Information is distributed to parents of the district's students and provided, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand. Parents are provided information through e-mail, phone calls, newsletters and the school website. We will also conduct two parent/teacher conference meetings during the school year to engage parents in meaningful dialogue about the progress of their children. Pursuant to Act 35 of 2004, each teacher in our district is required to have no less than two hours of professional development designed to enhance understanding of effective parental involvement strategies. These two hours may be included in the thirty hours required for each certified employee. We also provide mentoring of new teachers annually with training on how to conduct parent teacher conferences to provide meaningful communication with parents. Additional District Communication: Annual Report to the Public (Jennifer Almond) Student handbooks (Allison Pepper-Teacher and Jennifer Almond) Calendar of events for the year (Diane Lovell) Progress reports at 4 ½ weeks into marking periods (each teacher) Weekly folders (each teacher) Report Cards (each teacher) Home Access Center (HAC) (each teacher and Sherri Fite) District and School Websites (Sherri Fite) Local Newspaper (Angela Trotter) School Wide Phone Announcements-Alert Now (Diane Lovell and Central Office Staff) Music Programs-daytime and evening presentations (Mandy Hill) Interpreters for ESL families (Carmen Phelps) Interpreters for hearing impaired families (Donna Chastain) Invitations to Open House (Diane Lovell) Marquis sign (Josh Doddridge) New Parent Orientation Meeting held in August (Diane Lovell and Jennifer Almond) Remind 101 Texting (each teacher) WATCH D.O.G. program (Jennifer Almond)

3. How will your school provide information to parents about volunteer opportunities (must include state mandated parent training)?*Hint

Provide instruction to a parent on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment, including without limitation: role play and demonstration by trained volunteer, the use of and access to the Department of Education website tools for parents, assistance with nutritional meal planning and preparation and other strategies or curricula developed or acquired by the school district for at-home parental instruction approved by the Department of Education. The State Board of Education's Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts shall require no fewer than two (2) hours of professional development for teachers designed to enhance the understand of effective parental involvement strategies. No fewer than three (3) hours of professional development for administrators designed to enhance understanding of effective parent involvement strategies and the importance of administrative leadership in setting expectations and creating a climate conducive to parental participation. Parents are welcome in Caldwell Elementary School, and their support and assistance are sought. We have many volunteer programs throughout the district. Some examples are Parent Teacher Organizations (PTO), Watch DOG Dads, and Classroom Volunteers. A volunteer handbook with important information on effective volunteering, district policies, and frequently asked questions is provided for school volunteers. The district provides ParentTeacher Organization training, Watch DOGS are trained by the Top Dog. This often helps parents feel more comfortable volunteering in our schools. (Jennifer Almond)
