

IT Technician

Job Description

Under the supervision of the technology directory, the IT technician is responsible for district maintenance, support, and implementation of district technology equipment.

Specific Responsibilities

1. Install technology equipment following industry and district procedures.
2. Assist with routine maintenance of the district's technology equipment.
3. Assist with the inventory and tracking of the district's technology equipment.
4. Assist with the installation and maintenance of computer software.
5. Assist with other technical support duties as assigned.