1. List various communication strategies used in your school to provide additional information to parents and to increase parent and family engagement in supporting classroom instruction.

The school will distribute a monthly newsletter to parents, post on school web-site, and use Blackboard, a school wide phone announcement system, that includes school news, a calendar of school activities, and parenting tips related to school achievement such as homework tips, organizational skills, and study skills. (Principal). In addition, announcements will be posted on the Angie Grant Elementary Facebook page.

The school will use the Home Access Center (HAC) website to house classroom Web sites for each teacher. Also, parents can access their child's grades using a PIN number they received at the beginning of the school year. Parents may use e-mail to communicate with members of the school staff. Parents can access District and school websites for school news, calendar of school activities, and school information. (Assistant Principal)

Each teacher will send home a folder containing student papers and work samples each week. (Classroom Teacher)

Teachers will routinely contact parents on an individual basis to communicate about their child's progress. (Classroom Teacher)

The school will provide to parents reports/report cards every four weeks with information regarding their child's academic progress and upcoming classroom and school events. (Principal)

The school will offer parents the Annual Report to the Public each year on the school's yearly progress and approach to school improvement. (Principal)

The school will post in the local newspaper invitations to Angie Grant Open House, Kindergarten Round-Up, school achievements. (Principal)

Parents will receive elementary student handbooks at the beginning of each school year and as their child enrolls in the school. (Principal)

Parents will receive notice through school and classroom newsletters about music programs, family night events, PTO, and grade level programs. (Principal)

Interpreters will be provided for ESL families during Parent/Teacher Conferences, parent meetings, and additional school conferences. (Principal)

2. List the proposed parent meeting, conferences and activities regularly throughout this year and the dates providing flexible meeting times that you have planned to increase parent and family engagement and build staff and parent capacity to engage in these types of efforts. (Must include the 2 state mandated parent/teacher conferences each year.)

These meetings will include parent training sessions to help parents understand how to enhance their child's education.

These meetings will include a series of family book fair nights that provide an opportunity for parents and their child to experience the school environment in a positive and helpful manner while school staff may provide any needed assistance or encouragement. Dates: TBA (Library Media Specialist)

The meetings will be held at various times during the day or evening to better accommodate parents. Times: Teacher Prep Times, Lunch, and after school (Teacher)

Outside speakers will provide parents with more information concerning ways to make their child's academic life more successful. Classroom Teachers

The school will hold an orientation for parents at each grade level to inform them about the school's participation in the Title I program and to encourage parents to be involved with reviewing and revising of the School's Title I Plan. (Principal)

Teachers will hold conferences individually with parents of children in their classrooms. Parents will be given a summary of the student's test scores and an explanation of the interventions teachers are using to assist the child in reaching achievement goals. Parents will be asked to engage in discussion of how they can support these efforts. Parents will also be given suggestions for coordinating school-parent efforts and explanations of homework and grading procedures. Dates 10/23/2017 and 03/29/2018(Principal)

The school will offer parents a special workshop each year to provide an explanation of the statewide assessment system, standards, and other accountability measures.(Principal)

The school will encourage parents in the following types of roles and activities to increase their involvement and support for student learning:

- a. The Leader In Me Family Night 10/05/2017

- The school will provide a list of volunteer opportunities and solicit ideas for other types of volunteer efforts during orientation of parents. Teachers will explain the requirements to parents and encourage them to become involved in the school. A Volunteer Training will provide parents and community members with the information they need to participate as school volunteers in order to put them at ease and make the experience pleasant and successful. (Assistant Principal)
- The school will work with Benton Middle School to help provide a smooth transition from one school to the next by raising parent awareness of procedures and related activities. The middle school will host special orientation programs for parents and students to help with the transition. Parents will have the opportunity to meet the new teachers at the end of the school year's Rookie Camp which is for students going to Benton Middle Schools. TBA (Principal)

- School will provide instruction to parents on how to incorporate developmentally appropriate learning activities in the home environment, including without limitation: role play and demonstration by trained volunteer, the use of and access to the Department of Education website tools for parents, assistance with nutritional meal planning and preparation and other strategies or curricula developed or acquired by the school district for at-home parental instruction approved by the Department of Education. (Assistant Principal, Counselor)
 - (Staff Development) The State Board of Education's Standards for Accreditation of Arkansas Public Schools and School Districts shall require no fewer than two (2) hours of professional development for teachers designed to enhance the understand of effective parental involvement strategies every four years. No fewer than three (3) hours of professional development for administrators designed to enhance understanding of effective parent involvement strategies and the importance of administrative leadership in setting expectations and creating a climate conducive to parental participation. (Principal)

4. How will your school work with parents to create a School-Parent-Compact?

School staff, parents, and students will develop a school-parent-student compact. This compact will outline how parents, school staff, and students share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high academic standards. All stakeholders will have the opportunity to sign the compact. (Principal)

5. How will your school provide opportunities for parents to be involved in the development, implementation and evaluation of the school wide school improvement plan, and the Annual Title I Meeting to engage them in the decision-making processes regarding the school's Title I, Part A Program?

- The school will involve parents on school improvement planning committees. To support this process, the school will offer both school staff and parents training on how to contribute to this process in a meaningful way. Student Handbook Committee, Parent Involvement Committee (Principal)
